STAT

I received your 30 July 1975 letter [redacted] and my staff has looked closely into the possibilities of your return to the United States for permanent residence. It does not appear possible for you to return to the U.S. as a Vietnamese refugee parolee, as the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service has ruled that a parolee who elected to leave the U.S. for a third country is not eligible for re-entry under the parole statute.

STAT

Nevertheless, it does seem possible for you to gain entrance into the U.S. as a non-quota immigrant. We have contacted your daughter, [redacted] in Evansville, Indiana, and explained to her the immigration regulations as they apply in your case. She has been advised that as a U.S. citizen she can petition for your admission into the U.S. as a non-quota immigrant. All the necessary forms of petition have been sent to your daughter with a suggestion as to how she might file them with the proper authorities in an expeditious manner.

STAT

I regret that your choice to settle in France has met with so many difficulties, but am pleased that it seems possible for you to re-enter the U.S. and begin a new life here. Please extend my warmest regards to your family and be assured that we will assist where possible.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
